Though note 2 of Article 10 A of the Service Regulation does not require the confirmation of Govt. of Sanctions accorded by the Heads of Departments, there were a few cases recently in which the permission granted by the Rly Commissioner was ordered to be withdrawn. It seems therefore desirable that the Comptroller should refuse to admit such claims until they are confirmed by Government. If approved, the Comptroller may be informed accordingly.

From

Offg: COMPTROLLER, GOVT. OF MYSORE.

To L. Ananthaswami Rao, Esquire B.A.
~~THE~~ SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE, General and Rev: Dept.

SIR,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No: 1166-1205 d. 19. 12. 03, prescribing the conditions under which sanctions for conveying horses and carriages might be accorded by the Heads of Departments, I have the honor to State that previous to the issue of the above Government order, certain officers have obtained the General sanction of Government permitting them to take at Government expense their conveyances by Rail whenever they go on duty. Under ~~these~~ orders the cost of taking conveyances by rail is being included in in the Travelling Allowance bills as before and no information regarding the conditions under which the claims are made is forthcoming in the bills, in the absence of which it is not possible to say if the claims preferred by the officers are covered by the latest Government orders on the subject which limit the occasions for carrying conveyance at Government Expense to a very few Special cases. There are orders (a few of the kind are quoted in the margin) in which sanction to take conveyances on all occasions on which the officers travel has been given and I feel doubtful if a General sanction of this nature can continue to have force after the issue of the order passed on 19th December 1903.

2. Under note 2 to Art: 518 A the sanction of the official superior should be "at once communicated to the Government in the General Department with the reasons therefor." There have at late been instances in which sanctions accorded by the official Superiors have not been confirmed by the Government. The Revenue Commissioner has been qualifying his sanction

Sanctions by saying that they are subject to confirmation by Government. I request to be informed of how far the audit of the charges for carriage conveyances may be based upon the sanction of the Official Superior referred to in the Act: note 2 makes it obvious that such sanction is not final and I therefore beg to know if I may wait for the confirmation by Government of such sanctions before I admit the claims.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most Obedient Servant,
